

3M Versaflo M-307 Flame Resistant Headtop

Product Images

Description

The 3M Versaflo M-307 Headtops are designed to deliver respiratory protection and offer the wearer other protection and features to suit their environment and work. The M-307 Headtop features a flame resistant face seal for construction, chemical applications and heavy industry

- Flame resistant polyester face seal for applications involving sparks and hot particles
- Coated polycarbonate visor provides additional chemical and scratch resistance
- Modern, well balanced design
- Lightweight with excellent balance
- Fully-adjustable head suspension
- Textile harness for correct fit and weight distribution
- Deflector allows users to direct the airflow inside the headtop for control and comfort
- Spare parts and accessories are quick and easy to replace
- Visor design combines excellent downward vision with good optical clarity
- Conforms to EN 166, EN 397 and EN 12941 TH3
- Suitable for applications such as metalworking, smelting, woodworking, chemical processing and more
- Can be used with 3M Peltor Ear Muffs