

DDM Novastar MPP10 Manual Pick and Place Machine

Product Images

Description

The MPP10 Manual Pick and Place Machines are designed specifically for low to medium volume assembly runs. Featuring a patented hand rest and arm assembly allowing operators to accurately and efficiently place SMT components

- Moveable, ESD-safe component bins slide in close to placement area
- Vacuum tip automatically toggles on and off during component pick-up and placement
- Handle boards up to 14" x 14" (356mm x 356mm)
- Wide variety of options available for both machines including programmable dispensers, tape feeders, etc. - please contact us for details