

3M Organic Gas and Vapour Filters

Product Images

Description

The 3M Organic Gas and Vapour Filters provide A2 breathing protection against organic vapours (boiling point above 65 °C) These filters are designed to optimise your field of vision and combine protection with comfort. The 3M Organic Gas and Vapour filters are compatible with the 3M Reusable half and full-face masks

- A2 protection against organic gases and vapours
- Filters feature a brown colour-coded label according to the EN14387 classification system
- Designed to optimise your field of vision
- Fits directly on to facepiece
- Twist and click for a quick and easy fit
- Offers well-balanced breathing protection for hazardous environments
- Combines protection with comfort and balance