

Honeywell Bionic Face Shields

Product Images

Description

The Honeywell Bionic Face Shield has been designed to provide extended chin and top-of-head protection to the wearer, with a ratcheting headgear mechanism for additional comfort and security. The Bionic Face Shield consists of a complete bionic headpiece with a strap and extra soft cushioning to provide the wearer with increased levels of comfort

- Fully adjustable headband and ratchet headgear
- Comfortable fit with goggles or respirators
- Locking mechanism for increased safety
- Dielectric design
- Multiple visor tilt positions
- Extra soft cushioning
- Breathable, extra-soft, removable headband
- PC fog-ban/anti-scratch visor offers high impact protection
- Available in both acetate and polycarbonate
- Acetate uncoated visor offers chemical protection
- Replacement visors also available
- Certified to EN ISO 9001:2000