

Showa Butyl Chemical Resistant Gloves

Product Images

Description

The Showa Butyl Chemical Resistant Gloves offer superior protection, with high permeation resistance to corrosive acids, ketones and esters. Optimum precision and dexterity are provided to the wearer of the Butyl Chemical Resistant Gloves due to a rough surface grip. The Showa Chemical Resistant Gloves are ideal for working in biohazards and when handling oily components

- Impermeable for working in damp or greasy conditions
- Offer excellent protection against ketones, alcohols and nerve agents
- Provides the highest permeation resistance to gases and water vapours
- Unlined
- Rough grip for optimum dexterity and grip
- Butyl rubber coating
- Water-resistant
- 350mm in length
- Suitable for use in a range of applications such as chemical spraying, pipe fitting, laboratory analysis, chemical handling, wet work and coating preparation
- EN 388:2016 0010X
- EN ISO 374-1:2016/Type B BIK
- EN ISO 374-5:2016